NO ONE TO TRUST by Lynette Eason is one of the most gripping, high speed books I have read in a long time. At times, my heart was racing as fast as Summer and Kyle were running. A real thriller! Summer Abernathy awakes to find armed men in her bedroom in search of her missing husband. The story they tell her regarding her husband is ludicrous.

No One To Trust was an okay read. The heroine, Elena, was likable and fascinating. She's a kick ass heroine. And I like that even though she's a fighter and strong woman she wasn't afraid to ask for help whenever she needed it. I liked Sean. He was a very interesting character. I admired him for respecting Elena as a woman and as a mother.
